

The

ENGLISH HOME

Celebrating the essence of English
February/March 2009 | Issue 58 | £3.40

NEW SEASON INSPIRATION

with the latest home comforts

Beautiful bedrooms

Beds, storage & headboards

Flirt with pearl grey

The versatile colour trend

Rediscover the art of afternoon tea

Fall in love

with the new traditionalism

9 771468 023061

NATURAL FLOORING | DISPLAYING ART | LITTLE LUXURY

ADDED STYLE

Even the most uninspiring yet practical of divans can compete in the style stakes, thanks to the addition of a decorative headboard or cupola

Adhering to the original artisan methods of the 19th century, this hand carved ivory patina headboard measures 160cm in height. Parisien Tete de Li Rococco headboard, from £495 for a single, Sweetpea and Willow.

TOP Made to order and upholstered in the fabric of your choice, this sumptuous deep-buttoned headboard stands a metre high above the mattress, providing ample support when sitting up in bed. From £185 plus fabric, The Dormy House.

MIDDLE LEFT This curvaceous Baroque inspired headboard is available in king size. Gull Grey Lilla headboard, £425; bedside table, £245; Pondichery cushion covers, £49 each; Lahore wool throw, £220, all OKA.

FAR LEFT Add height and drama with a wall-mounted cupola and matching tie backs. Choose from a hoop, as shown, or a box, in various sizes. Large hoop cupola, from £398; Malin tie backs, from £27; Malin Middle bed, from £1,469, all Leporello.

LEFT This classic upholstered hand painted Swedish headboard is also available with a matching footboard. Tista upholstered headboard, from £495 for a single size, from Nordic Style. ■

FEATURE: PAULIA WOODS